*NOTE FROM THE PRODUCER*

In 1981, a new career path was imposed upon me by the then-new management of Publishers Clearing House. Two days before the opening of "Red, Hot and Blue", I was released from my position as Director of Systems and Programming. Since then, I have conducted an independent consulting business in New York and New Jersey on an hourly fee basis. As a result, each summer it has been necessary to reserve to the Teen Summer Theater all overtime hours and three full weeks in August at to pay. With our son, Christopher's, graduation from high school, Pam has been working in the city and has found that her career progression has, in different ways, but similarly, been restricted by the extraordinary requirements for our summer production. Inasmuch as "Peter Pan" was Pam's first directorial activity with Play Troupe and this production is such a fine one with such a hard-working cast and crew, it seems like a proper time for us to withdraw from this activity for the good of our personal lives.

We will continue to be involved in Play Troupe adult activities as we have in the past. Also I will continue to work with Dr's Banks and Purnington and their staffs in the school productions.

I thank the following people (in chronological order) for their long-term advice, assistance, and moral, physical, and financial support: Jeanne Clarke, Amy Pell, George Christopher, Kevin Hickson, Jerry Stone, (Phil & Marlene Barnall, Jerry Weinstein, Alan Robinson, Bob & Marc Klein, Agnes Drummond, Hal Champel, Dick & Chris Dell, Malcolm & Mary Downey, Phil Glaver, Bob Harding, Pastor Charles Vogeley, and especially the young man who gave us the courage to attempt our most difficult work - our first musical director - David Barnwell.

Thank You All
